

M-POWER and CPWF Research Fellowship Program - Third Call

The Research Fellowship Program is led by the Asian Institute of Technology, Yunnan University, and Ubon Ratchathani University on behalf of

The Mekong Program on Water, Environment and Resilience

and

The Challenge Program on Water and Food – Mekong

Key facts:

Call opens: March 22, 2012

Call closes: April 23, 2012

Grant size: US$ 10,000 each

Duration: One year from day grant awarded

Number of available grants: 20-25

Eligible applicants: Open to anyone, but preference given to nationals from one of the six Mekong countries.

The Research Fellowship Program seeks to build capacity of people interested in improving fair and research-based knowledge and policy for the sustainable management of water resources in the Mekong Region.

Focus areas:

- Dialogue
- Institutions
- Knowledge & Capacity
- Social Justice
- Human Security

Supported by:

Submission procedures and more information at:

www.mpowernetwork.org -> Get Involved

www.mekong.waterandfood.org -> Opportunities

Please submit applications to: fellow.mekong@gmail.com